Bite Night, die Halloween Party in Ravensburg

Halloween etabliert sich immer mehr in Deutschland und dementsprechend finden an vielen Ecken Themenparties statt. Vorreiter im Raum Ravensburg zu dieser Bewegung war das Tanz-Ensemble Special-Mix aus Ravensburg unter der Leitung von James Readon; einem – was sonst – gebürtigen Amerikaner. In diesem Jahr feierte die Formation das 10-jährige Jubiläum Ihrer sogenannten „Bite-Night“ (Beiss-Nacht) und verwandelte dazu das Konzerthaus Ravensburg in ein Gruselkabinett. Über die Jahre hatte es sich herum gesprochen, dass man auf diese Party unverkleidet keinen Einlass gewährt bekommt, was die Gäste immer mehr zu extravaganten – meist selbst gebastelten – Kostümen bewegte. Mit einer knapp 40 Minütigen Show und allen denkbaren Gruselfiguren von Beetlejuice, Frankenstein und Michael Jacksons Thriller wurde das Jubiläum gefeiert und im Anschluss traditionell das beste Kostüm mit 200,00 Euro prämiert.
